Terms & Conditions

Effective Date: November 24, 2026

Organization: Huntley Area Public Library District Friends Foundation

Website: huntleylibraryfriends.org

1. Acceptance of Terms

Welcome to the website of the Huntley Area Public Library District Friends Foundation ("Friends Foundation," "we," "us," or "our").

By accessing or using this website, you agree to these Terms & Conditions. If you do not agree with these terms, please discontinue use of the website.

These Terms & Conditions apply to your use of our website and to transactions made through the website, including donations, ticket purchases, and other fundraising activities, when offered.

2. About the Friends Foundation

The Huntley Area Public Library District Friends Foundation is a separate nonprofit organization established to support and promote resources and opportunities associated with the Huntley Area Public Library District.

The Friends Foundation is a separate legal entity from the Huntley Area Public Library District. Although the organizations work cooperatively to support the community, the Friends Foundation maintains its own governance, finances, activities, website, and organizational records.

This website is operated by the Friends Foundation and is separate from the website and information systems of the Huntley Area Public Library District.

3. Website Content

We make reasonable efforts to provide accurate and current information on this website. However, event dates, times, locations, prices, descriptions, and other information may occasionally change.

The Friends Foundation reserves the right to correct errors, update information, modify website content, or discontinue website content at any time without prior notice.

Information provided on this website is for general informational and community purposes and is not intended to constitute legal, financial, accounting, or tax advice.

4. Donations and Charitable Contributions

The Friends Foundation accepts charitable contributions through payment methods made available on the website.

Charitable contributions are voluntary gifts intended to support the Friends Foundation's charitable purposes. Unless specifically stated otherwise, a charitable donation does not entitle the donor to goods, services, event admission, merchandise, or other benefits.

The Huntley Area Public Library District Friends Foundation is recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions may be deductible to the extent permitted by law. Donors are responsible for determining the tax treatment of their contributions and should consult their tax advisor regarding their individual circumstances.

The Friends Foundation provides written acknowledgments and receipts for charitable contributions in accordance with applicable federal requirements.

When a payment includes both a charitable contribution and goods or services, the amount that may be deductible for federal income tax purposes may be limited. When required, the Friends Foundation will provide the appropriate disclosure regarding the estimated fair market value of goods or services provided in exchange for a payment.

5. Event Tickets and Other Purchases

From time to time, the Friends Foundation may offer fundraising events, event tickets, merchandise, sponsorship opportunities, or other purchases through the website.

The price and terms applicable to a particular purchase will be provided at the time of the transaction.

A payment for admission, merchandise, registration, or another item or service is not necessarily a charitable contribution. Where applicable, the Friends Foundation will identify the portion of a payment that represents a charitable contribution and the portion attributable to goods or services.
Event-specific terms may supplement these Terms & Conditions.

6. Payment Processing

Donations and other payments made through this website may be processed through PayPal.
When you make a payment through PayPal, your transaction is also subject to PayPal's applicable terms, conditions, and privacy policies.
The Friends Foundation does not control PayPal's systems, policies, or practices and is not responsible for interruptions, errors, or other issues caused by PayPal or another financial institution, except as otherwise required by law.

7. Photography and Video

The Friends Foundation may photograph or record activities at Friends Foundation events for use in our website, newsletters, social media, promotional materials, fundraising communications, and organizational archives.
If you do not wish to be photographed or recorded, please notify a Friends Foundation representative at the event.
If you appear in a photograph published on our website and would like the photograph removed, please contact us at huntleylibraryfriends@gmail.com and provide a description or link to the photograph. We will consider reasonable requests for removal.

8. Copyright, Logos, Photographs, and Other Materials

Unless otherwise indicated, the text, graphics, logos, photographs, and other original materials created or provided by the Friends Foundation and displayed on this website are owned by the Friends Foundation or are used with permission.
The Friends Foundation uses its own photographs and materials on this website. Materials belonging to other organizations are not represented as being owned by the Friends Foundation.
You may view or print materials from this website for personal, non-commercial use. You may not reproduce, modify, republish, distribute, sell, or use Friends Foundation materials for commercial or promotional purposes without prior written permission.
Requests for permission to use Friends Foundation materials may be submitted to huntleylibraryfriends@gmail.com.

9. Third-Party Websites and Services

Our website may contain links to websites operated by third parties, including PayPal, community organizations, sponsors, event services, or other resources.
These links are provided for convenience. The Friends Foundation does not control and is not responsible for the content, availability, security, or privacy practices of third-party websites.
A link to another website does not necessarily constitute an endorsement or sponsorship by the Friends Foundation.

10. Website Availability and Disclaimer

We make reasonable efforts to maintain the availability and accuracy of our website. However, we do not guarantee that the website will always be available, uninterrupted, secure, or free from errors.
To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Friends Foundation is not responsible for losses or damages arising from temporary website interruptions, technical problems, errors in website content, or reliance on information provided on the website.
Nothing in these Terms & Conditions is intended to exclude or limit any liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited under applicable law.

11. Changes to These Terms

The Friends Foundation may update these Terms & Conditions from time to time. Any revised terms will be posted on this page with an updated effective date.
Your continued use of the website after revised Terms & Conditions are posted constitutes acceptance of the updated terms.

12. Governing Law

These Terms & Conditions are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois, without regard to its conflict-of-law principles.
